

Theatre Tutor / Teaching Artist Wanted

Opportunity:

Southern Edge Arts is a youth arts organisation based in Kinjarling Albany. We champion the creativity of young people and communities through the creation of performing arts experiences. We provide a program of weekly workshops to young people and are seeking a suitably experience Teaching Artist to deliver our theatre / drama workshops:

Tuesdays (school term)

4pm – 5pm: Actors Club, 9 – 12 years

5.30pm – 7pm: Theatre Ensemble 13+ years

In our studio at Southern Edge Arts, PCYC, Sanford Road, Albany.

Workshops culminate in a short performance at our Showcase at the end of Term 2.

Why work for Southern Edge Arts

Join our team of committed and welcoming Teaching Artists who collaborate with young people to create meaningful and contemporary arts experiences. At SEA we focus on circus, physical theatre and theatre and make original works that explore themes important to young people living in regional WA.

As a Teaching Artist you will receive:

- Professional development support from Artistic Director, Annette Carmichael and guest artists
- Work inside an enduring arts organisation that supports artist development
- Have an opportunity for further engagement on special projects and outreach projects

Selection criteria:

We are looking for a Teaching Artist with the following:

- Experience teaching acting or physical theatre and performance to young people
- Experience in facilitating self-devising and improvisation processes
- Experience in collaborating with other artists and community members
- Willingness to promote the Act Belong Commit message and adopt an approach that supports the social and emotional well-being of participants

Deadline:

To express interest in this position, please send your CV and a cover letter addressing the selection criteria to Annette Carmichael, Artistic Director, Southern Edge Arts, artisticdirector@southernedge.org.au by 5pm Monday 1 April 2024. For more information call us on 08 9841 6002.